

Dated 11th August 1893.

49.

Manor of Ingleton

^{copy} Admittance of Mr James Barker by deed from the Trustees of the Will of Mr. Braconer, deceased.

Manors of Ingleton
In the County of York

The Court Baron and Customary Court of Henry Hugh Hornby Esquire The Reverend Charles Edward Hornby and Hugh Frederick Hornby Esquire Lords of the same Manors holden at Ingleton aforesaid in and for the same Manors on Friday the eleventh day of August 1893 Before J. H. Hunt
Deputy Steward of the said Manors

At the Court the Lords did grant out of their hand unto James Barker of Ingleton in the County of York beliving Manager Four messuages or dwellinghouses known as "Pemberton Cottages" with the gardens and appurtenances thereto belonging described in " " " and surrendered and conveyed by a certain Indenture bearing date the twenty eighth day of February last from Smith Smith of Rotherbury Colne in the County of Lancashire Gentleman and Joseph Henry Shelfall of Colne aforesaid Tinsmith and Spirit Merchant to the said James Barker and which said premises are situate in Ingleton aforesaid and within and parcel of this Manor and are held of the Lords thereof under the apportioned yearly customary rent of One penny three farthings and other dues duties and services To hold the said hereditaments and premises with the appurtenances Saving and reserving unto the said Smith Smith and Joseph Henry Shelfall their heirs and assigns all pits and beds of coal within and under the said premises with Rights of searching for winning or taking getting and carrying away the same as in the said Indenture is mentioned for the rent aforesaid unto the said James Barker and his heirs according to the custom

I certify that the Rent of Customary Courtyer upon which this indenture was granted was duly stamp'd. Witness my hand this eleventh day August 1893
J. H. Hunt
Deputy Steward

Rent 1 3/4
Fine 2/2 1/2