Derby June 24th 1868

ADDRESS TO DERBY.

To /
C. Ingleby Esq
Gai

We have the pleasure to hand you our estimate of a new best finished Dog Cart Phaeton and we trust it will meet your ap-proval - our Mr Holmes I'm's did not think of telling you that since

we built your former carriage, wages have advanced from 15 to 20 per cent, and the hours of work, for weeks have been reduced to 40 per cent, consequently we cannot reduce our prices —

We may add that we have by the aid of our Steam Machinery very materially improved the quality of our carriages

You will see that the pole & bar, pole pieces Lumps, shafts and

Cocon nut seats, spaw &c are all included in the first charge of £80 awaiting the answer of your commands which shall have our best attention, we have the honour to be,

Yours most obedient,
& obliged servants,
Wm A Roberts.

P.S. If you require a new harness of any kind we can supply
you exceedingly well
It will be obliged by your order.
