

Garstone Friday night
13 August 1841

150

Dear Sir

Before this reaches you you will have received Two Orders of the Court We are down at Angleton to day where we saw Mr Pearson - from his conversation I do not believe any Parochial Meeting was duly summoned for the purpose of determining upon the application under the Act but still the fact to be that the application was rejected at adjournments of the original Parochial meeting - to honestly seem to think the Notice insufficient but to say they are such as the Commissioners have sent down after his explanation to them of the circumstances of the case - to say the Commissioners who is coming is a very off hand sort of Gentleman & will look the whole case into his own hands -

It has occurred to me that should the Commissioners upon any pretext set out a boundary short of that up to which we have enjoyed - it would be